NEW DEADLINE
27 April

ARE YOU WORKING ON CULTURAL HERITAGE FOR A
LOCAL OR REGIONAL ADMINISTRATION?

Funded by the Creative Europe Programme
of the European Union

Cultural Heritage In Action is looking for 30 local practices in Europe that are innovative, inspiring for other cities and regions and have a real impact on the ground. Cultural Heritage In Action is a peer-learning programme for local and regional policymakers to exchange knowledge on cultural heritage. The focus of this programme is on participatory governance, adaptive reuse and the quality of interventions.

This call is open to local and regional administrations of all sizes (rural areas, medium size cities, large and capital cities, regions) from the 27 European Union countries as well as the UK (*).

We consider cultural heritage as 'resources inherited from the past in all forms and aspects – tangible, intangible and digital (born digital and digitized), including monuments, sites, landscapes, skills, practices, knowledge and expressions of human creativity, as well as collections conserved and managed by public and private bodies such as museums, libraries and archives'

What will happen?

Cultural Heritage In Action will produce a catalogue of 30 good practices from cities, regions, non-urban and rural areas across the European Union and will organise 12 peer-learning visits bringing together 20+ participants per visit.

How can you take part?

Cultural Heritage In Action is looking for 30 local practices that are innovative, inspiring for other cities and regions and have a real impact on the ground.

A call is currently open until 27 April 2020 to identify 30 practices that will be featured in a catalogue.

At the beginning of March, EUROCITIES will organise an information webinar on the project.

In June 2020, a call for participation in peer-learning visits will be launched. This will be open to representatives from local and regional authorities and to cultural heritage stakeholders.

What is cultural heritage in action?

The aim of the European Commission with this programme is to empower cities and regions to strengthen their cultural heritage policies and initiatives and to develop innovative solutions to preserve cultural heritage assets.

The peer-learning programme is one of the actions of the Commission's European Framework for Action on Cultural Heritage building on the momentum created by the 2018 European Year of Cultural Heritage.

The consortium led by EUROCITIES with its partners

- KEA European Affairs,
- European Regions Research and Innovation Network (ERRIN),
- Europa Nostra and
- Architects' Council of Europe is managing the programme between January 2020 and April 2021. The funding is received from the European Commission's Creative Europe Programme.
