Executive Director | Hong Kong Ambassadors of Design

Hong Kong Ambassadors of Design (HKAoD) is currently seeking an Executive Director to lead the organization into its next phases of development.

HKAoD is a not-for-profit organization that promotes design and creative culture in Hong Kong and abroad. Founded in 2006, HKAoD aims to mobilize the general public around design and culture-led projects that stimulate dialogue in unconventional ways. It particularly encourages exchanges between local and international communities and works to promote the value of design in everyday life.

This position requires strong leadership experience in the areas of culture, creative industries, business, and the public sector. The Executive Director will be responsible for the organization's annual programme of events, including lectures, workshops, and exhibitions. He/she will also be responsible for public-private fundraising as well as partnerships.
