Inside Pictures is an intensive film business training and leadership skills development programme for film industry executives from all disciplines (development, production, sales, distribution, marketing, finance, legal and business affairs). The sessions will take place in June, September and November 2014. It is designed to develop the practical knowledge, skills and high level contacts needed to lead successful businesses, aiming to give its participants a 360 degree understanding of the global business of film.

The programme will take on 24 participants, and is suited to those already working in feature films, although it could also be of benefit to those working in an associated creative industry such as television.

They are looking for applicants with a number of years proven business experience in film or a related creative industry. This may include, but is not limited to, the following fields: production, development, acquisitions, directing, marketing, distribution, exhibition, advertising, sales, legal, talent representation, finance. The course takes place across several workshops in London. There are eight London Participant places available.

The fee for a London Participant place is €3,000. Some scholarship grants are available.

For more information, visit the website or contact Inside Pictures directly.

The deadline for applications is 16 March.
