France | 25th Instants Video Festival | open call

Les Instants Vidéo is an event dedicated to electronic poetry with its multiple forms, monobands, installations, performances, multimedia... Open call to artists worldwide for 25th Festival in Marseille, November 2012.

It is all together a festival and a laboratory where international renowned artists and works of arts can meet with works that are more fragile, still in progress, delicates. In order to support real encounters between works of art, artists and spectators, there is no competition and the admission is free.

The event is made of different spaces. The Poetronic Encounters take place in La Friche Belle de Mai in Marseille (in November 2012). Every year, this central part of the event welcome more and more spectators, in a space we try to make as friendly as possible.

Deadline for entries: 23 June 2012
