FAQ Frankfurt Fellowship

Is there an age limit?

There is no official age limit, but the programme is aimed at young professionals. Most Frankfurt Fellows are between 30 and 40 years old when they take part in the programme.

Who should write the three letters of recommendation?

The letters of recommendation should be written by international publishers, editors, foreign rights directors/managers or literary agents with which the applicant has worked. Recommendation letters written by authors cannot be considered.

Who can be considered for the Frankfurt Fellowship?

Publishers, editors, rights and licensing professionals, agents and product managers specialised in children's books (print and digital) can apply for the Frankfurt Fellowship.

Costs

Travel expenses and accommodation while staying in Germany are covered by the Frankfurt Book Fair. This also goes for part of the food expenses until October 5th. Participants are responsible for covering their travel costs to Frankfurt and back.

How is the procedure during the Frankfurt Book Fair? Can I arrange my own appointments?

From the 6th October to 12 October, there will only be evening engagements within the Fellowship programme (on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday). During the day, the Frankfurt Fellows can arrange their own appointments.

What should I do if I need a visa?

Fellows who need a visa will receive an invitation letter from the Frankfurt Book Fair after being selected for the programme.
