Residence Programme 2019

Fukuoka Asian Art Museum (FAAM) announces the call for the 2019 FAAM Residence Programme, open to visual artists, researchers and curators from 21 countries in Asia. FAAM invites Asian artists, researchers and/or curators to stay in the museum to engage in various exchange programs with the local community in Fukuoka, Japan.

Through the residence program, FAAM intends to promote further understanding of Asian arts and cultures, to vitalize local communities, and to be a focal point for exchanging ideas and aesthetics through Asian arts.

The program invites visual artists, and/or researchers/curators active in Asia to conduct various exchange programs in Fukuoka including art making, workshops, exhibitions, and lectures.

FAAM Residence Program 2019

For the year 2019, 1-3 artists will be selected from 21 countries/region in Asia. The program will place even more importance on “exchange” with the museum visitors and local community through a creative channel of art.
