14th Holland Animation Film Festival takes place in Utrecht, The Netherlands on 3 - 7 November 2010: call for entries for international competition.

HAFF is a breathtaking experience with the art of animation with competitions showcasing the state of the art, SFX and VFX, motion graphics, thematic programmes, installations and much much more.

HAFF is proud to introduce two brand new competitions: the international competition for features and the competition for European student films. HAFF also invites films for the international competitions for shorts and for commissioned films. And Dutch films can also compete for the audience award for best Dutch animation.

Competition categories for animation films:

- international competition shorts (categories: narrative and non-narrative)
- international competition commissioned films (categories: commercials, music videos, educational or information films, station calls and leaders)
- international competition features
- European competition student films

Deadline entry forms and preview tapes: July 15, 2010.

Deadline entry forms and preview tapes for the competition of features is August 1, 2010.

Deadline screening copies: September 15, 2010 for video, October 15, 2010 for film copies.

For each film or video a separate entry form must be completed. Please see website for application form and regulations.
