Hong Kong | Asia Art Archive seeks Research Assistant

Asia Art Archive is seeking a full-time Research Assistant for the Archive's special project 'Materials of the Future: Documenting Contemporary Chinese Art from 1980-1990.' The role is based in Hong Kong and is an exciting opportunity to gain substantial research experience in a dynamic arts organisation at the centre of the region's contemporary art community and to become immersed in the Chinese contemporary art scene.

Responsibilities include:

- collating primary and secondary source material acquired during the project
- organising, cataloguing, and annotating research materials

The ideal candidate will possess the following attributes:

- A recognised degree with a specialisation in art history/theory/criticism/practice
- Familiarity with the contemporary art scene in China
- Work experience in the art field (research experience an advantage)
- Fluency (written and spoken) in Chinese and English
- Strong organisational skills and a dynamic, self-motivated, and responsible working style

Interested candidates should send curriculum vitae with full career and academic details, two reference letters, availability, and salary requirements to Janet Chan (janet@aaa.org.hk) by 31 August Hong Kong time 6pm.

Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted and should anticipate a start date in late September 2012.
