Hong Kong Performing Arts Expo 2026 Showcase

Hong Kong Performing Arts Expo (HKPAX) is calling for applications from practitioners of all performing arts disciplines worldwide to showcase their work to international peers, fostering collaboration and touring opportunities.

Successful applicants will be offered one to two performance opportunities at a designated venue in Hong Kong during HKPAX (9 to 13 October 2026), where they can present their original work to a global audience.

The call is for the following:

- Full-length performances in dance, drama, music, xiqu (Chinese Opera), and multi-disciplinary arts; excerpt performances are allowed for xiqu's work.
- Performance duration must be between 45 to 60 minutes (a recording of a full-length performance is required for all applications).

- Submissions may include ready-to-tour work or works that are ready to premiere, however, works-in-progress will not be accepted.

Each selected applicant will receive:

- basic technical support from the performance venue
- promotional support from HKPAX
- a travel and accommodation allowance of 10,000 USD
- a complimentary spot in the exhibition area to promote their work
- two Full Passes granting access to HKPAX events
