IETM Focus Luxembourg 2023 travel grants

IETM Focus Luxembourg 2023

📅 27-30.11.2023 📍 Luxembourg, Luxembourg

Co-organised by  Kultur|Ix

From 27 to 30 November 2023 IETM will be hosting a focus meeting with its members in Luxembourg, organised in collaboration with Kultur | Ix - Arts Council Luxembourg.

IETM Focus meetings serve as a collective network brainstorm on a specific topic coupled by networking and exploration of the local artistic scene.

Travel grants are available and are intended to provide financial assistance for IETM members in order for them to participate in the meetings. IETM currently has 524 members from 60 countries.

Selection criteria

IETM selects candidates (who are IETM members) on the basis of their access to opportunities, motivation and potential contribution to the meeting. They encourage members to apply with environmentally friendly travel options whenever possible. However, air travel will be equally considered if there are no alternative options.

What do the grants cover?

The grants can cover up to 75% of the travel expenses in connection to the meeting, including airport transfers by public transport. The grants do not cover per diem, visa or local transport expenses.

The grant also includes shared accommodation for three nights. IETM will cover and arrange accommodation directly for the nights between 27 and 30 November.

Who can apply?

Our travel grants are reserved for IETM members only. Applicants must fit the following criteria:

- You or your organisation have been a member of IETM for at least one year
- The annual turnover of your organisation or your freelance activities does not exceed 100,000 EUR
- You have already settled your membership fee for the ongoing year

Please note that a travel grant is only offered to one person per organisation.
