artist residencies call

Incheon Art Platform in Korea artist residencies 2020 call is open for applications from international visual artists.

Incheon Art Platform is pleased to announce Open Call for international artists in our Artists-in-Residence program for 2020. As a cultural complex for the arts, Incheon Art Platform aims to develop its residency program as a space for creative experiments; where artists from diverse practices are encouraged to collaborate and exchange with one another to form alternative discourse in contemporary art. In support of our artists, IAP offers opportunities to engage with the locals by promoting projects (exhibition, etc.) and working with the community.

Application Field: Open call only applies for international artists in the Visual Arts. - Visual arts such as painting, installation, photograph, video, media art, community art, and etc

Please see website guidelines for how to apply and the support offered.
