International Art Residency 2023

FARM Studio International Artist Residency is calling for applications from international artists of all disciplines for their 25-day residencies between 3 October 2023 and 28 February 2024 in Rajasthan, India.

FARM Studio International Artist Residency aims to provide a rural, community-based open platform where relationships can be fostered between the artists coming from different geographical locations and varied social, religious and cultural backgrounds. Farm Studio also promotes intercultural exchange through the exchange between the local community's artistic and cultural identity and international guest artists.

Farm Studio International Artist Residency hosts artists 6 to 12 residents at one time.

Eligibility

Artists of all disciplines creating in any media are welcome to apply: dance, theatre, music, sound, performance art, writing, painting, drawing, printmaking, textiles, culinary, photography, video/film, animation, architecture, sculpture (any material), ceramics, mixed-media/multi-media, interdisciplinary, installation, and other new/alternative media.

Researchers, curators and art critics are also welcome to apply. The residency is open to emerging and established artists.

Residency periods

- 3–28 October 2023
- 3–28 November 2023
- 3–28 December 2023
- 3–28 January 2024

• 3–28 February 2024

What is provided

Farm Studio will provide accommodation, meals, studio spaces, and an exhibition opportunity. There is a residency fee and artists are responsible for travel, visa, materials, entertainment, food costs outside of the residency, and insurance.

Farm Studio residency provides three types of working spaces where artists can explore their art and ideas in the rural Rajasthani environment: at the Farm Studio indoor studio, the outdoor and farm environment, and in Andore Village.
