Dancing on the Edge: Peripheral Practices

Registrations open for the European Dancehouse Network (EDN) Atelier, hosted by Dance Ireland and Dance Limerick, 9–10 February 2023 during the What Next Dance Festival in Limerick.

EDN invites artists, programmers, curators and cultural policy makers to join the Atelier, to exchange knowledge and models of practice. Over the two days, participants will explore, through discussion and practice, what it means to be on the periphery—geographically, culturally and socially—through the lens of creative, community and curatorial dance practices.

EDN travel support

EDN will reimburse a fixed amount of travel contribution, three per diems at 30 EUR per day, and three nights of accommodation for up to seven participants. Priority will be given to EDN members and their associates.

Up to nine further participants can join the Atelier without receiving travel support. These participants will have to book and cover travel and accommodation individually.
