Japan | Rules and Regs residency for UK performance artists

Rules and Regs welcomes applications from UK-based artists for an artist-development residency programme in Yokohama for artists working in performance and Live Art who wish to explore their practice through developing new work.

Two artists based in the UK will join one Japanese artist in residence in Yokohama 17 Jan - 15 Feb, 2013.

Deadline for applications: 5pm, Monday 19 November 2012.

Artists will receive accommodation and development space in Yokohama, technical and curatorial support, a small fee and subsistence funds. Work developed by the artists will be presented at the Kanagawa Arts Theatre as part of the TPAM Performing Arts Meeting programme at the conclusion of the residency.

Rules and Regs creates innovative programmes supporting artists' development.

R&R brings artists, organisations and audiences together, fostering understanding and creativity through making and experiencing new art, in new ways.
