deadline January 28th

The Jeonju International Film Festival (JIFF) is held every spring in Jeonju, the traditional city of Korea. Launched in 2000, JIFF is now recognized as one of the most important film festivals in Asia that introduces Independent and Experimental films from around the world. JIFF will greet the audience with a more diverse program.

JIFF accepts submission for feature films including fiction, documentaries, animations, experimental films, and so on. Most especially the “International Competition” Section is the main program at the JIFF. This section will screen feature films and documentaries over 60 minutes.

No fees required for entry.
