The Jogja-NETPAC Asian Film Festival (JAFF) is calling for Asian film submissions for their 18th edition, to be shown in Jogjakarta, Indonesia, 25 November to 2 December 2023.

JAFF is a premier Asian film festival in Indonesia focusing on the development of Asian cinema. This festival not only contributes to introducing Asian cinema to a wider public in Indonesia, but it also provides a space for the intersection of many sectors such as arts, culture, and tourism.

Since its inception, JAFF has worked closely with NETPAC (Network for the Promotion of Asia Pacific Cinema), a worldwide organisation of 30 member countries. NETPAC is a pan-Asian film and cultural organisation involving critics, filmmakers, festival organisers and curators, distributors and exhibitors, as well as educators.

JAFF presents several awards to the best films in Asia such as Golden Hanoman Award, Silver Hanoman Award, NETPAC Award, Blencong Award, Geber Award, Jogja Students Film Award, and JAFF-Indonesian Screen Awards to express the deepest appreciation for Asian cinema.

Requirements

JAFF accepts feature films (over 45 minutes) and short films (under 45 minutes) in narrative, documentary, experimental or animated form.

Submissions are only open to Asian or Indonesian films or films that have relations with Asian countries.

Films must have English subtitles.

JAFF application guidelines
Deadline: 31 July 2023
