RAINDANCE FILM FESTIVAL

Submit your film to Europe's leading independent film festival. Raindance accepts fictional, documentary and experimental features, short films, music videos and children's films.

Raindance Film Festival is Europe's leading independent film festival. Listed by Variety as one of the world's top 50 'unmissable film festivals', Raindance aims to nurture, support and promote independent films and filmmakers from the UK and around the world. Our festival is known for being bold, edgy and sometimes daring, screening all genres of feature fiction and documentary (over 70 UK Premieres a year) and over 200 shorts, making it the most noted festival of discovery and for launching debut filmmakers in Europe.

The 20th Raindance Film Festival will take place in London from 26 September to 7 October 2012. The festival aims to reflect the cultural, visual and narrative diversity of the international independent filmmaking community and specialises in films by first-time directors. Raindance accepts fictional, documentary and experimental features, short films, music videos and children’s films.

This is the last call for submissions with a late deadline of 10th June 2012 and an extended Withoutabox-only deadline of 24th June 2012.
