2017 | call to galleries

 ar175331

THE NEW DISCOVERY AWARD 2017 - A new format! Call for applications from galleries worldwide, to submit exhibition projects by young photography artists (under 45). Ten of the projects will be selected and supported for presentation at the Rencontres d'Arles 2017, with a €20,000 acquisition award for the winning artist.

Since its creation, the Rencontres d'Arles has been a force for the promotion of photography and all its players, from photographers to exhibition curators and publishers.

In that spirit, the festival wishes to open the Discovery Award up to galleries, often the first to spot the talent of tomorrow.

Now they can propose a show featuring an artist they support and whose work has recently been discovered by an international audience or deserves to be.

Ten of the submitted exhibition projects will be shortlisted and mounted at the next Rencontres d'Arles. During opening week, professionals will vote for the one they consider the best and bestow the New Discovery Award on the winning artist and his or her gallery.

A selection of the artist’s works will be acquired for the amount of €20,000.

Deadline for submission of projects: 5 February 2017
