Lithuania | Young Theatre Days - open call

OPEN CALL for international festival "Young Theatre Days" in Klaipėda, Lithuania Professional development international collaboration opportunity - apply now.

April 13-18, 2020, international festival Young Theatre Days is returning to Klaipėda, Lithuania, inviting professional theatre creators to try themselves in an unusually fast and dynamic creative process. Gathered actors, directors, stage designers, playwrights and critics will, study the themes prepared by the organizers and work together for two days, creating and presenting the performance for the audience.

The festival will be complemented by the cinema workshops. Selected theatre actors will have a chance to work together with cinema directors and prepare short films, which will be presented on the final day of the festival.

OPEN CALL

We are inviting professional actors, theatre directors and stage designers to participate and fill in the application form. The project involves creative workshops, the essence of which is the cooperation of young professionals from different creative fields in the limited time frame, preparing the performance and presenting it to the audience.

We are accepting applications till January 31st 2020. However, due to the limited spots for participants, the Call might be closed earlier. If you have any questions about application procedure, please contact ieva@jtd.lt

The organizers will cover travel expences and provide free accommodation and catering.
