Capital of Culture call for projects

In 2022 the city of Esch-sur-Alzette in Luxembourg will become European Capital of Culture. A call for projects by Esch2022 on the theme of Remix Culture is open - see eligibility criteria and guidelines.

The nomination includes: - the city of Esch - 11 Luxembourg communes in the south of the country - 8 French Pays Haut Val d'Alzette communes (CCPHVA) As part of this European initiative, the not-for-profit organisation Esch2022 is launching a call for projects. These projects should contribute to the achievement of the general missions and objectives established by the European Capital of Culture.

GENERAL THEME: REMIX

Remixing means combining existing sources to produce a new or modified situation (and, in our specific case, to produce new forms of social cohesion)

Esch2022 will act as a sort of cultural catalyst powered by its component areas, the city of Esch, the southern region with its eleven communes and the eight CCPHVA communes, and a new perception of Europeanness. Society, region facing complete transformation.

Due to profound societal, urban and regional changes, and the way these changes are perceived, this "shift" is a complex situation that elements of contemporary culture can highlight in an innovative and original way. Esch2022 will be witness to a period of transition.

Esch2022 will be the forum for a revamped vision of a Europe that transcends national boundaries and emphasises the diversity of the people and participants in these cultural activities. Including and being joined by over one hundred nationalities and languages: the possibilities are endless.

But, more than anything, Esch2022 will drive a change in habits, stereotypes and the societal status quo. Using the notion of remixing to form new ties is a fundamental aspect of the Esch2022 artistic programme.

Deadline for project submissions: 31 July 2019
