National Theater of Korea | residency program for traditional musicians

Call for applications from traditional musicians for an international residency program at National Theater of Korea, Seoul. Open to suitably qualified applicants from 24 countries including Indonesia, Viet Nam, Cambodia, Myanmar, Mongolia, Philippines, Lao PDR, Bangladesh and Pakistan.

Description

National Theater of Korea (NTOK) have an open call for International Residency Program 'Cultural Partnership Initiative(CPI)'. National Theater of Korea's CPI program is to facilitate links between organizations and musicians operating within the international musical landscape by providing an open platform for exchange, collaboration and research.

We at the National Theater of Korea have enthusiastically taken up the task of organizing this residency program, initiated by Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism of Korea in an effort to broaden the context of traditional music and practices and to contribute to building of a potential association among theaters related professionals. Looking to the NTOK's Cultural Partnership Initiative Program as a potential ground, it is with the hope that this potential association may bring new kinds of relationships among a diverse theaters and musicians.

National Theater of Korea's CPI program is to provide an international platform to facilitate exchange between traditional musicians as well as music practitioners, and scholars. This residency program will serve as a meeting point for musicians from all parts of the world. Organized as a series of concerts, Korean instrument learning workshops, and cultural field trips, National Theater of Korea will reflect a new set of challenges in the fields of traditional music.
