Open Call for New Media Art and Independent Film | open call

Open Call for ANEMIC Contemporary & New Media Art Festival in Czech Republic - independent film and multi-disciplinary artists invited to apply in many categories.

ANEMIC Festival is dedicated to the discovery of independent film directors and emergent artists. Through its program, the festival seeks to discover, support, and inspire independent film and multi-disciplinary artists around the world, and to introduce audiences to their new creation.

ANEMIC presents a fresh and multi-disciplinary program composed by feature, documentary and short films, digital poetry, video art, animations, interactive installations, audio-visual performances, public discussions and meetings with artists. In November 2010, for its first year, the festival took place without any grants. Thanks to the generous support from our partners, artists and so precious volunteers.
