Why study at Salzburg International Summer Academy of Fine Arts?

The Salzburg International Summer Academy of Fine Arts, founded in 1953 by Oskar Kokoschka as the “School of Vision”, in Hohensalzburg Fortress, is the oldest of its kind in Europe. Every year, some 260 participants from more than 40 countries attend around 20 courses.

- open for application to anyone interested
- unique opportunity to study with outstanding artists/curators/writers who mostly don't hold a professorship elsewhere
- during 1–4 weeks, you can devote yourselves exclusively to reflecting on and producing art.
- individual attention, one-on-one critiques as well as group discussions
- fantastic atmosphere in the ancient locations
