18 open call

“Love Sharing” 2018 international festival in Sardinia, Italy will focus on Migration. The Festival is open to all contemporary artists and also to researchers and scholars on the theme - open call for submissions.

Organized by “Theandric”, a drama company taking an innovative and experimental approach to political theatre, “Love Sharing” is the first International Festival dedicated to the culture of peace and non- violence. The fourth edition will be held in October 2018 in Cagliari, Sardinia (Italy). It will focus on Migrations.

How can non-violent research contribute to solve the issues linked to the migration phenomena?

Artist proposals

Special attention will be paid to innovative and interdisciplinary works. All kinds of contemporary artworks and performances are acceptable:

- theatre, dancing, contemporary music;

- street theatre and circus;
- visual arts, video, painting, sculpture and photography.

You can apply with either an artwork or a brief workshop (2/3-hours-long).

Please bear in mind that the artworks must be related to the Migration theme, maintaining the nonviolent approach to conflicts as a reference point.
