SeaShorts Film Festival is back! Next New Wave in Malaysia announces the call for short films made by Southeast Asian directors and produced in Southeast Asia for SEAShorts Film Festival 2018.

Submit your short film to us!

Deadline: 3rd June 2018 (before 23:59 UTC/GMT).

Eligibility

- Director(s) must be from Southeast Asia.
- The short film submitted had not been premiered in any film festival before 1st June 2017.
- Country of production: Southeast Asian countries (fulfilled by at least two of these: film locations, core team members, main casts, or funding)
- Short film duration should not be more than 30 minutes, including credits

Submissions

- Complete the entry form: <https://goo.gl/forms/iYKtW0ijeQtAApzm1>
- No fees required.
- The submission should be done by owner of the short film.
- All submissions must not breach any third party copy right (i.e. if you use commercial video, music or stills, please clear the copy right before submitting).

Next New Wave is an initiative founded in 2015 to focus on nurturing young and emerging filmmakers in Malaysia.

One of our main goals is the emphasis on Southeast Asian collaboration - exposing young Malaysian filmmakers to films from the region and also bringing in established filmmakers from Southeast Asia to share their experiences.
