residency call for Yangon-based artists

AiRS

Artist in Residence Skövde Art Museum

The International Residency Program at Skövde Art Museum in west Sweden has an open call this year for artists living and working in Yangon, Myanmar. Based on dialogue between the artist and society, where the museum is an integral part, the Skövde AiRS programme offers one residency to an artist from a designated country/region. For 2019 residency, 6-8 artists in Yangon will be selected for studio visits by the AiRS team visiting Myanmar before the final decision is made. Some of the studio visits in previous years have led to other project engagements with artists.

AiRS

- AiRS is a international art residency program at Skövde art museum and is awarded to one artist per year.
- Airs was founded in 2014 and is made possible on a grant from West Sweden Region.
- AiRS is committed to a policy of non-discrimination and equal opportunity for all persons regardless of race, sex, color, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression.
- AiRS is a gateway for international connection for Skövde art museum.

Application and review process

AiRS believe in extending the online application to also entail a dialogue in person. As part of this engagement the curator and museum director will do approximately 10 studiovisits in Yangoon prior to the final selection of one artist for AiRS 2018.

A studiovisit is a point where the artist can present ideas, visions, critical stance as well as ask about the program. We believe this process contributes to obtain a high-level artist residency with focus on evolving the artist practice and select topic.

Please review Eligible Artists above prior to starting your application!!!

- Step 1: Online application (No process fee)

Aplication deadline: June 12 2018: See application link at the top of this page.

AiRS team reviews online application and selects 6-8 artists for Studiovisits in Yangoon.

(ongoing process). The selected artists will be contacted June to August and is promoted to set up studio visits.

- Step 2: Studiovisits (November - date to be decided)

AiRS team makes studio visits and selects the artist for the residency (selection to be announced November 2018)

Please prepare a 60 minute studio visit or portfolio review

- Step 3: Reconnect (AiRS and artists/curators in Yangoon)

AiRS is part of Skövde Art Museum, some of our AiRS studio visits have resulted in other engagements. Even if you are not selected for our residency program we are interested in your specific work. This is why we have set up a "Reconnect" opportunity. At this point we will make public who is the AiRS 2019 artist.

- Step 4: Meeting with selected artist

AiRS team and artist meet for 3 hours in Yangoon to discuss details in regards to residency and proposed project.

The studio/apartment is located on the second floor of a newly renovated building from 1862, located in a courtyard across from the museum. Next door is an analog graphic print studio, gallery and art school. The museum is in the same building as the public library, cinema and restaurant/bar/café. All in the very center of the city. Skövde is a rural town of around 34,000 population in south west Sweden.
