Collaborate

SAC International Curatorial Residency Programme 2025 is calling for applications from international curators for a residency in April 2025 in Barcelona's Sant Andreu Contemporani.

The curator will be part of the Miquel Casablanças Prize for the Visual Arts' jury in 2025, and will later develop a curatorial project with a selection of Catalan artists chosen from applicants to the prize. The project must be presented at the country of residence of the curator or in another international venue that she/he decides.

The purpose of the open call is to offer the curator personal knowledge of the art context through involvement in the jury of the Miquel Casablanques Prize, and to foster, in the context of young art talent, future collaborations between local and foreign cultural actors.

Eligibility

For reasons of sustainability and resource requirements, the geographical scope contemplated for the proposals is Europe, the Mediterranean and the Maghreb. It is essential that the curator knows Spanish or Catalan.
