Sweden | Production Residency for Photographers 2025

Region Norrbotten, in collaboration with KKV Luleå and the art magazine Loosenart, is calling for applications from photographers (artists and journalists alike) to apply for a six-week production residency in Spring 2025 in Luleå, a city just below the Arctic Circle and part of the Arctic Sweden and Sápmi region.

During the residency, the selected photographer will have access to a studio space at KKV Luleå, an artist collective equipped with various machines and workshops. This setup fosters collaboration and networking with regional artists and professionals. Additionally, trips and study visits within the region can be organised based on the artist's preferences and research interests.

As part of the residency, the photographer will also be invited to give a presentation on their artistic work to local audiences.

Eligibility

Applicants need to be a resident of an EU country and a professional visual artist with at least 5 years of experience.

Support

- Tax-free Scholarship: 20,000 SEK
- Support for Materials/Travel Costs: Up to 15,000 SEK
- Accommodation: A studio-apartment located in central Luleå
- Workspace: A studio at KKV Luleå
- Custom activities based on the artist's interests
- A chance to showcase some works produced during the residency at Millepiani space in Rome (Italy) in Autumn 2025
- The potential for one of the residency-produced works to be purchased and added to Region Norrbotten's art collection

Production Residency application guidelines

Deadline: 15 November 2024
