Program Description:

In the context of its research and residency program, ZK/U offers a 'living & work' space for artists, scholars and practitioners working in the fields of urban research, geography, anthropology, urbanism, architecture and the humanities. The programme is open to brave, curious, artists in their field, working on the edge of their practice.

ZK/U RESIDENCY

The residency consists of furnished studio-apartments (half of which have private bathrooms), communal facilities, an open platform for public events, lectures, discussions, screenings, performances and presentations.

ZK/U organises various events which allow residents to present their work to a selected audience. The residency also organises monthly curator studio visits, one public group presentation (OPENHAUS) per month, online and local promotion of the public events, and the opportunity for the residents to propose their own format.

For individual fellows, depending on the type of studio-apartment and the length of stay, the resident's costs are between 500 and 800 euro per month. The price covers all utility costs and space usage.
