The Agency for Culture and Palaces of Denmark

The agency provides advice to the Danish minister of culture and is involved in setting and achieving the government's cultural policy goals. The agency is responsible for managing and maintaining state-owned palaces and castles, gardens and cultural properties.

Another task involves allocating funds for both individuals and organisations and institutions as well as collecting, processing and disseminating information and findings to promote cultural development. The agency is responsible for managing and maintaining state-owned palaces and castles, gardens and cultural properties. They rely on professional and innovative approaches to optimise the use of resources in achieving the goals under the government's cultural policy.
