Alliance Franciase De Chittagong

The Alliance française de Chittagong has become the major cultural centre of the city through concerts and exhibitions. It is a platform and a meeting point for artists and art critics from Bangladesh and abroad thanks to international cooperation, such as the one built with the Superior Fine Arts Institute of Besancon (France).

Additionally, the Alliance française de Chittagong has provided French teaching to thousands of students of different ages, professions and disciplines. Its teaching members have been collaborating with French speaking TV and radio programmes on various occasions. Alliance française de Chittagong is at the forefront of language teaching methodology.
