Andalusia Film Commission

Andalusia Film Commission is a nonprofit institution that aims to promote Andalusia as a place of shooting and support companies and professionals of the audiovisual industry in the logistics of their productions.

Since its inception in 1998, Andalucía Film Commission reports on possible locations in Andalusia and coordinates the audiovisual industry and production companies with the government, performing a work aimed at attracting tourism and economic impact in the Andalusian region.

It has also signed agreements with public and private institutions from different provinces of Andalusia to create the Film Cities Network, in order to provide the best coverage of audiovisual production needs throughout Andalusia.
