Arts Institute

Art Institute – Institut umění is an information, consulting, training and production center for the arts, especially for the fields of theater, music, dance, visual arts and literature.

It encourages a strategic approach to culture, and it supports and connects culture professionals and artists across different disciplines, while it also contributes to their professional growth on the national and international scene.

The Arts Institute was founded a separate department of the Arts and Theatre Institute in 2005. It organises activities, projects and programmes that reflect current needs in the contemporary arts and culture, thereby supporting the advancement and status of the arts and culture in society. It collaborates with other departments in the Arts and Theatre Institute, the Creative Europe Desk Czech Republic – Culture Office and other organisations and bodies at the national and international level so that its activities can have the widest possible impact.
