Arts Management Network

State of the Arts

First established as a German online magazine for arts management, Arts Management Network acts as an online resource database on international information service for arts managers worldwide. The network dedicates its works primarily to experts and professionals in the art and culture sectors. However, it is also a resource center for academics, students, researchers, policy makers, regional and national authorities etc.

The website and the monthly newsletter became popular among professionals in the arts and the creative sector. With its global perspective, the network is a valuable resource for academics, students, researchers, regional and national authorities, business people, and journalists. The company maintains two online platforms with together more than 24,000 subscribers and about 40,000 users a month. In addition, the company offers various business services for arts managers like human resource management, training, and coaching.
