Association Of Hungarian Documentary Directors Magyar Dokumentumfilm Rendezők Egyesülete (Made)

The association of Hungarian documentary film directors was founded in 1998. Its objectives are to represent the interests of its members in filmmaking in general. MADE now has 30 members, all of whom are active, major filmmakers of documentaries and other television projects.

The association provides post-production facilities for documentaries (post-production studio) and produce annual publications on the activities of documentary filmmakers. MADE published books and organized film festivals detailing the last five decades of Hungarian documentary films.
