The Association Of Polish Filmmakers

The Association of Polish Filmmakers is the largest Polish organisation of film professionals. It exists since 1966, and counts over 1200 members in a dozen sections and circles. The members of the Association are directors, producers, cinematographers, animators, screenwriters, film critics, stuntmen, make-up artists, sound editors, editors - people from all televisual professions who work in Polish cinematography and television.

At the second edition of the Guangzhou (Canton - China) International Documentary Film Festival In 2004, the Association has successfully organised a Polish Day. Polish films taking part in the competition have been awarded 3 out of 7 competition awards

The Association also organised a retrospective of the most interesting Polish productions in Beijing, Chengdu and Tianijing. The organisers of the event were: the Union of Chinese Filmmakers, the Association of Polish Filmmakers, Film Polish Promotion Agency and the Ministry of Culture.
