Athens International Film Festival

The Athens International Film Festival OPENING NIGHTS, was founded by the Athens Film Society Non-Profit Organization with the intention of:

- I) Highlighting lesser-known aspects/genres of independent cinema
- II) introducing audiences to some of the best productions of the year
- III) establishing itself as the ideal opening of the coming movie season.

The Festival was launched in September 1995 and continues successfully until now. The movie theatres accommodating the Festival are:

ATTIKON

The goal is to present Greek audiences with a handpicked selection of independent productions from all over the world
