Australia-India Institute

The Australia India Institute is Australia's leading centre dedicated to enhancing Australia-India relations. They aim to increase the policy and public importance of India as a crucial partner in Australia's future, and of Australia as a crucial partner in India's future. Their activities across the academic, political, business and community sectors have helped to shape engagement with India among Australian decision makers, change perceptions about Australia in India, promote trade and investment and activate bilateral networks. For over a decade the Australia India Institute has built a solid reputation as a convener of bilateral dialogues and a thought leader providing expert advice and policy commentary on India. Their quality research, advocacy and stakeholder reach make them a sought-after partner.
