Bangkok World Film Festival

Held yearly in late October/early November in Bangkok, Thailand

The World Film Festival of Bangkok was established in 2003 by the Nation newspaper.

The Festival is dedicated to bringing the world's best art house, indie, comedy and classic films to Bangkok, and will also feature talks by directors and actors, plus Q&A sessions. It aims to be an event of truly international significance with a distinctive character of Asian contemporary and world cinema, and is dedicated to showing films of high quality.
