Bavaria Film Gmbh

Based on the tradition of a studio company founded in 1919, Bavaria Film has steadily grown to become a group of presently more than 30 subsidiaries and shareholding companies in important media locations in the German speaking part of the world. Today Bavaria Film is a worldwide operating production and service group encompassing all sectors of the audio-visual industry.

Film and television production is the most important business field of the Bavaria Film group. TV programmes form the core component of business with approximately 40,000 broadcasting minutes throughout the year.

The Bavaria Film service ranges from the support of idea development for productions and planning and studio lease to professional studio and set construction and the complete technical production service palette.
