B&B Film

B&B Film is an Italian production house based in Rome. It develops and produces creative documentaries and documentary series through co-production and broadcast agreements with European and international broadcasters like Arte, YLE, RAI, National Geographic and Al Jazeera.

B&B Film's documentaries have been shown in more than 160 countries and have been screened at major international film festivals like IDFA, Locarno International Film Festival and HOT DOCS. They have received several awards including "Creative Excellence" at the "US International Film Festival", "Premio Ondas" and "Globo D'Oro".

For 20 years now the company has been also supplying location and research services, camera crews and post-production facilities to broadcasters and production companies. It owns a large archive of filmed material on history, society and wild life.
