Choice Film & Television Institute

CHOICE FILM & TELEVISION INSTITUTE is an ambitious enterprise to provide a reliable platform to understand the various dimensions of filmmaking. Our prime motive is to create able producers, directors, writers and actors who have understood the medium really well and are ready to explore further possibilities of creativity and entertainment.

We at Choice believe in creating the most conducive ambience to bring out the best in every person as an artist as well as a human being. Students here shall receive instruction and guidance from some of the best talents of this industry.

Choice as an institute is very well connected with the industry and is already being looked at as a great hub of interaction with the industry and also as a talent pool that would decide the shape of entertainment in the future.
