Community Center Rojc

Društveni centar Rojc – Community Center Rojc is an alternative urban culture center situated in Pula, Croatia. Rojc hosts over a hundred civil society associations who are active in the fields of culture and art, sport and recreation, children and youth, ethnic minorities, psycho-social work, and more.

Rojc Alliance is a network of NGOs located in the Community Center Rojc, which gathers and represents the alliance, stands up for their interests, fosters mutual cooperation and actively works in the community. The goals of the alliance is to build a network based on collaboration and joint programmes; improve the management of the Community Center Rojc, based on participative joint public-civic management; contribute to and work in the community; and actively promote the need for cooperation, principles of solidarity and respect for diversity.
