CRACK

INTERNATIONAL ART CAMP

2 0 1 2

CRACK Bangladesh promotes young artists and thinkers by giving them space and momentum for flourishing their talent on an international basis. Through various activities, CRACK wants to exchange thoughts, ideas, concepts and beliefs with artists and other professionals around the world, from theatre activists, photographers, film makers, psychologists, poets, writers, journalists, actors and people from many other disciplines.

It aims to provide culture practitioners across the world with the philosophical basis to think independently and collaborate on mutually interesting overlaps. Involvement with the multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural participants invariably means fresh, positive and new ideas for everyone engaged in the process.

CRACK Trust organises two programs annually: CRACK International Art Camp (CIAC) and Connecting Youngsters: CRACK Summer camp. A core team of activists play organizing roles in executing these programs. On its journey, CRACK has developed a strong network of associated artists in the world, especially in South Asian countries.
