Daegu Culture & Arts Center was built in 1990.

The main theater with 1,078 seats serves as a stage for orchestral concerts, operas, dances, and drama performances and is equipped with a revolving stage, a lift stage, an orchestra pit, up-to-date lighting equipments and sound facilities.

A small theater with seats for the audience of 316 is used for solos and dramas.

The exhibition building, shaped like a hexagonal beehive, represents the harmony and assiduous creation of artists. There are also 13 galleries and garnering rooms in the building. A spacious indoor fountain pond and several resting places provide a space for the meeting and dialog between artists and the public.

Main Theater Building
The main theater building symbolizes a traditional hat which represents traditional beauty of Korea. Its balconied facade provides beautiful landscape around building for the audience. In this building, over 300 concerts and performances in the fields of music, dance, Korean Classical Music, and opera are staged annually, which makes it one of the most favorite places in Daegu for resting and enjoying cultural programs.

Rehearsal Building for City Art Group
Daegu City Arts Corps was established by Daegu Metropolitan City Government in order to promote the local culture and purify the spirits of Daegu citizens. Consisting of seven subordinate groups and three hundred members, it has staged special and outdoor performances as well as a variety of periodical ones for its citizens. In addition, Daegu City Arts Group committed itself to satisfy the cultural demands of the citizen and promote the local cultural development by having paid over one hundred visits to schools annually and having made a lot of on-the-spot performances for patients and socially-alienated people who couldn't have an easy access to high-level cultural events.
