The Daesan Foundation

The Daesan Foundation has been established under the auspices of the Kyobo Life Insurance Company with the aim of fostering Korea's national culture and globalising Korean literature, in accordance with the wishes of its founder, Daesan, SHIN Yong-Ho.

The Daesan Foundation is engaged in projects of public interest, various planning activities, and other projects for cultural development. The Daesan Foundation's website is operated by the Daesan Foundation and targeted at the interested local and foreign public, with its coverage of both traditional and contemporary literature, research, publication, and distribution of works, all of which contribute to the development of the nation's culture.
