De-a Arhitectura Association

De-a Arhitectura Association is a Romanian cultural organisation of architects and teachers, that develops and promotes architecture and built environment education for children and young people, in order to raise the awareness and provide knowledge about the values of architecture, design and urban planning. Its educational programs take place in schools, museums and at architecture and design events. The educational program De-a arhitectura in my city, is the first curriculum of build environment education, approved by the Ministry of National Education, in Romania.
