Department for Culture, Media and Sport

The Department for Culture, Media and Sport will focus on supporting culture, arts, media, sport, tourism and civil society across every part of England – recognising the UK's world-leading position in these areas and the importance of these sectors in contributing so much to our economy, way of life and their reputation around the world.

The department will champion sport for all at every level, support world-leading cultural and creative industries and enhance the cohesiveness of communities.
