Digital Academy

If you eat, drink and sleep movies then Digital Academy is the place to be in. If you want to make your own films, but you don't know how to turn your dream into reality then DA will help you realize it. At Digital Academy you can learn to ideate script, direct shoot edit, add required special effects, as well as record the sound & music under one roof.

We provide extensive training in the above-mentioned courses. Our forte is hands on training that can place you right in the middle of the entertainment industry. At Digital Academy we cater to creative minds with or without any formal training and regardless of any background, which makes it our job to meet them at any level equip them and accelerate these future industry professionals along a path towards one of the multiple careers available in the industry. Digital Academy has basic three principles.

Hands-On-Training

Gone are the old techniques of learning. We have devised special modules for teaching these future industry professionals. Along with the lectures we have full fledged seminars and guest lectures. But we take your education outside the confines of classrooms and make you work on the industry equipment and that gear will take off your career.

Placement Cell

Our instructors and guest lectures share their experiences, which they have gathered over the years of experiences. Our faculty is still very active in the industry and can weave in their current knowledge with the curriculum. They will tune you in to current production techniques, scripting ideas, equipment usage and industry trends.

Digital Academy's Centre located in the heart of Kolkata City, presently conducts courses in Animation, SFX and Non-Linear Editing.
