Ekalokam Trust for Photography (EtP) is an artist-run, registered, not-for profit organisation based in Tamil Nadu, India, dedicated to protecting and promoting contemporary photography and allied art forms

It is initiated and managed by a team of photographers, artists, historians, writers, academicians and management experts. Challenging the common venue-based approaches and stepping aside the grand narratives and agendas, they have been standing as a collective creative force that organises pioneering local, public-centered photo-art projects. Their collaborative projects aim to enrich contemporary photographic practice and to raise awareness about its importance among the public.

Their area of operation spreads across South India and its connected cross-border cultures and their Head Office is in Tiruvannamalai, Tamil Nadu.
